

Economics 452 Student Survey

This survey will help me get to better know you and your interests.

1. First name _____ Last name _____ Section 10:20a/11:55a

Where are you from? City _____, State _____, Country _____

Have you lived anywhere else? _____

2. Major (circle one): ECON, INTS, POLS, other _____

Why did you chose that major? _____

3. Have you taken: Economics 202 (Principles of Economics) or equivalent? Yes/No

Economics 322 or 323 (Microeconomic Theory) or equivalent? Yes/No

Econometrics 463 (Introduction to Econometrics) or equivalent ? Yes/No

List any other Economics or Econometrics courses taken: _____

4. Why are you taking this course? Anything about international economics especially interest you? _____

5. List any foreign countries you have visited or lived in. _____

Any countries you would like to visit? _____

6. Any countries you have a special interest in and why? _____

7. Do you have an interest in any industry (eg autos, computers, textiles, agriculture) and why?

8. What are your plans after college? Any thoughts of graduate study? _____

Please reflect on how international trade affects you and others and answer the questions below.

Name some items you own that were made in another country and some items you own that were made in the United States. How do you explain the location of where goods are produced?

Describe some ways that your life is better due to international trade:

Describe any ways that international trade has a bad effect on you or others:

Describe what impact you think immigration has on the United States. Should we allow more immigration or less? What should be done (if anything) about illegal immigration and why?